

MOTIVATION STORY

Ratan Naval Tata

“I don’t believe in taking right decisions. I take decisions and then make them right.”

Ratan Naval Tata (born 28 December 1937) is an Indian industrialist, philanthropist, and chairman of the TATA group. Ratan Tata is a name which is famous all around the world. But at the inception of the business, he faced two bankruptcies which are enough to take back a businessman.

As per data, the revenues of Tata Group grew over 40 times, and profit over 50 times during the time Ratan Tata was the chairman. Ratan Tata firmly believes that a person’s attitude and mindset can make or break them

He brought down the retirement age from 70 to 65, leading to an ouster of some of the oldest employees of the organisation. Despite the many failures he has seen, Tata Nano being the latest, Ratan Tata did not give up and continues to be a global figure even today.

28 December 1937

Born

1951

Received a degree in Architecture from Cornell University

1991

Became Chairman of Tata Group

2016–2017

Interim chairman of Tata group

2000

Padma Bhushan

2008

Padma Vibhushan

2012

Resigned as Chairman of Tata Group

2012

Cyrus Mistry

2016

Became Interim chairman of Tata group

2017

Natarajan Chandrasekaran

2017

Resigned as Interim chairman of Tata group